

IMPETIGINOUS

Meaning: Impetiginous refers to a skin infection characterized by the presence of lesions similar to those caused by impetigo, often requiring medical treatment.

1. The dermatologist diagnosed the child with an impetiginous infection that required prompt treatment.
2. In some cases, impetiginous lesions can lead to more severe complications if left untreated.
3. The vet explained that impetiginous conditions can affect pets, particularly in warm and humid environments.
4. Teachers were reminded to watch for signs of impetiginous outbreaks among students during the school year.
5. After noticing the impetiginous patches on her skin, she sought medical advice to prevent further spread.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impetiginous>