

IMPETRABLE

Meaning: Impenetrable means impossible to pass through or overcome; impervious to influence or effect.

1. The fortress stood as an impetrable barrier against the invading forces.
2. Despite the heavy rain, her resolve remained impetrable, unwavering in the face of adversity.
3. His impetrable demeanor made it difficult for others to breach his emotional walls.
4. The ancient manuscript was protected by an impetrable code that only a few could decipher.
5. In her impetrable logic, she found solutions that left many in awe of her reasoning.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impetrable>