

IMPETRATIVE

Meaning: Impertative: expressing a commanding or authoritative quality that demands attention or action.

1. The impetrative tone of her voice commanded immediate attention from the audience.
2. In a crisis, his impetrative nature often led him to take charge of the situation.
3. The impetrative style of the article urged readers to take action on climate change.
4. She delivered her message with an impetrative flair, making it impossible to ignore.
5. His impetrative requests for assistance highlighted the urgency of the matter at hand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impetrative>