

IMPETRATORY

Meaning: Impetratory refers to a request or action intended to obtain something, often through formal or ritualistic means.

1. The impetratory request was submitted to the court, seeking the rights to the disputed land.
2. In ancient rituals, the impetratory chants were believed to invoke the favor of the gods.
3. Her impetratory speech swayed the audience, compelling them to support her cause.
4. To gain the necessary permits, the developer made an impetratory appeal to the city council.
5. The ambassador's impetratory tone during negotiations highlighted the urgency of the situation.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impetratory>