

IMPIERCEABLE

Meaning: Impierceable: incapable of being penetrated or pierced.

1. The armor was so well-crafted that it appeared impierceable to the enemy's weapons.
2. Despite the fierce storm, the old lighthouse stood tall, its structure seemingly impierceable to the raging winds.
3. Her confidence was impierceable, even in the face of harsh criticism from her peers.
4. The ancient fortress, with its thick stone walls, seemed almost impierceable to any would-be invader.
5. He believed his resolve was impierceable, impervious to the doubts that plagued his mind.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impierceable>