

IMPING

Meaning: Impinging refers to having a negative impact or encroaching upon someone's ability to concentrate or exercise freedom.

1. The sudden noise from the construction site was impinging on her concentration.
2. He felt that the new policies were impinging on his creative freedom.
3. The rising tide was dangerously impinging on the coastal homes.
4. She worried that her health issues were impinging on her ability to work effectively.
5. Their constant demands were impinging on his personal time and well-being.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imping>