

IMPLACABILITY

Meaning: Implacability refers to the quality of being unable to be appeased, placated, or changed; relentless or unyielding.

1. Her implacability in negotiations made it clear that she would not back down easily.
2. The implacability of the storm left the coastal town in ruins and without power for days.
3. Despite his friends' pleas, his implacability regarding his decision to leave the job surprised everyone.
4. The implacability of fate often leaves us feeling powerless in the face of life's challenges.
5. She admired his implacability in the face of adversity, knowing it was a rare quality to possess.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/implacability>