

IMPLANTATION

Meaning: Implantation refers to the process of inserting or establishing something, such as technology or a medical device, into a system or body for functional or therapeutic purposes.

1. The implantation of the new technology significantly improved efficiency in the manufacturing process.
2. After the implantation of the device, the patient reported a marked improvement in their condition.
3. Researchers are studying the effects of seed implantation on crop yield and soil health.
4. The successful implantation of the embryo resulted in a healthy pregnancy for the couple.
5. Invasive procedures often carry risks, but advancements in implantation techniques have minimized complications.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/implantation>