

IMPLAUSIBLE

Meaning: Implausible: not seeming reasonable or probable; failing to convince.

1. The detective found the suspect's alibi to be implausible, given the evidence presented.
2. Her explanation for missing the meeting was so implausible that no one believed her.
3. The scientist dismissed the theory as implausible, lacking any supporting data.
4. It seemed implausible that a single person could complete such a monumental task in just one week.
5. Despite his charm, his story felt implausible to those who knew the truth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/implausible>