

IMPLICIT

Meaning: Implicit means suggested or understood without being directly stated or expressed.

1. The teacher's disappointment was implicit in her silence after the students failed to complete their assignments.
2. Although he didn't say it directly, there was an implicit understanding that everyone would contribute to the project equally.
3. Her smile carried an implicit promise of support, even when words were not spoken.
4. The contract contained several implicit clauses that could lead to misunderstandings if not properly addressed.
5. The implicit bias in his decision-making process influenced the outcome more than he realized.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/implicit>