

IMPLICITNESS

Meaning: Implicitness refers to the quality of being understood or implied without being directly stated or expressed.

1. The implicitness of her agreement made it clear that she was fully on board with the plan.
2. In discussions about morality, the implicitness of certain values often goes unaddressed.
3. The implicitness of the contract's terms led to misunderstandings between the parties involved.
4. He appreciated the implicitness in her tone, which conveyed understanding without needing explicit words.
5. The implicitness of cultural norms can sometimes create barriers for newcomers in a society.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/implicitness>