

IMPLODED

Meaning: Imploded refers to collapsing inward violently or suddenly, often due to internal pressure or failure.

1. The old building imploded spectacularly, sending debris in all directions.
2. After years of mismanagement, the company finally imploded under the weight of its debts.
3. As tensions rose, the negotiations imploded, leaving both sides in disarray.
4. The star's reputation imploded after the scandal broke, shocking fans and critics alike.
5. The once-thriving market imploded when investors lost confidence and pulled out their funds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imploded>