

IMPLORATORY

Meaning: Imploratory: expressing a desperate plea or earnest request for help or understanding.

1. Her imploratory gaze pleaded for understanding in a room full of indifference.
2. The child's imploratory voice echoed through the hall, desperate for attention and comfort.
3. In his imploratory tone, he begged for a second chance, hoping to prove his worth.
4. The letter was filled with imploratory phrases, revealing the author's deep sense of urgency.
5. She made an imploratory gesture, extending her hands as if to invite empathy and support.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imploratory>