

IMPLORE

Meaning: Implore: to earnestly and desperately beg or plead for something.

1. She implored her friend to reconsider the decision that could change their lives.
2. The child implored his mother for just five more minutes of playtime before dinner.
3. During the meeting, the leader implored the team to unite and work towards a common goal.
4. As the storm approached, the villagers implored the heavens for mercy and protection.
5. With tears in her eyes, she implored him to stay, fearing what the future might hold.
6. I implore you to reconsider your decision before it's too late.
7. The child looked up at her mother and implored her for just one more cookie.
8. In his speech, the candidate implored the voters to unite for a better future.
9. She implored her friend to be honest about his feelings rather than hide them.
10. As the storm approached, the villagers implored the skies for mercy.
11. The child looked up at her mother and implored her for just one more story.
12. In his speech, he implored the audience to take action against climate change.
13. She implored her friend to be honest about his feelings, hoping for clarity.
14. During the meeting, the team leader implored everyone to contribute their ideas openly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/implore>