

IMPLORER

Meaning: Implorer: a person who earnestly and fervently begs or pleads for something.

1. The implorer knelt before the king, pleading for mercy on behalf of the villagers.
2. With tears in her eyes, she became an implorer, desperately asking for help to find her lost son.
3. As an implorer of peace, he traveled the world advocating for harmony between nations.
4. The implorer's voice trembled as he shared his heartfelt story with the captivated audience.
5. In his final moments, he was an implorer, urging his friends to cherish their time together.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/implorer>