

IMPLOSION

Meaning: Implosion is the sudden collapse of a structure inward, often resulting in a dramatic and explosive event.

1. The sudden implosion of the old stadium left the crowd in awe as the structure collapsed in on itself.
2. Scientists studied the implosion of the star, which emitted a brilliant flash before disappearing from the night sky.
3. After years of neglect, the abandoned building faced an inevitable implosion that would clear the site for new development.
4. The controlled implosion of the dam was carefully planned to ensure the safety of nearby residents.
5. Her emotions felt like an implosion, overwhelming her from within as she struggled to keep her composure.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/implosion>