

IMPLOSIVE

Meaning: Implosive refers to a characteristic or quality that involves inward collapse or a sudden release of energy, often leading to surprising or intense outcomes.

1. The implosive nature of the experiment revealed unexpected results.
2. Her voice had an implosive quality that captivated everyone in the room.
3. In linguistics, an implosive consonant is produced with an inward airflow.
4. The implosive force of the rocket's ignition created a stunning visual display.
5. He described the implosive emotions he felt during the intense moment of the play.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/implosive>