

IMPOLICY

Meaning: Impolicy refers to a lack of prudent or wise policy, often resulting in negative consequences or backlash.

1. The company's impolicy towards employee feedback has led to a decline in morale.
2. Due to its impolicy regarding environmental regulations, the firm faced severe backlash from the community.
3. The impolicy of neglecting customer service has resulted in a noticeable drop in sales.
4. Many believe that the government's impolicy on healthcare is detrimental to public well-being.
5. In an era of transparency, the impolicy of withholding information is increasingly unacceptable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impolicy>