

IMPOLITIC

Meaning: Impolitic refers to actions or remarks that are unwise or tactless, often leading to social or political repercussions.

1. The politician's impolitic remarks during the debate alienated many potential voters.
2. It was impolitic of him to criticize his boss in front of the entire team.
3. Her impolitic behavior at the dinner party made everyone feel uncomfortable.
4. Choosing to ignore the cultural sensitivities of the guests was an impolitic decision.
5. In diplomatic circles, impolitic comments can strain international relations significantly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impolitic>