

IMPOROUS

Meaning: Imporous: lacking pores or openings, thus not allowing the passage of water or moisture.

1. The imporous nature of the material made it unsuitable for waterproof applications.
2. Despite its aesthetic appeal, the imporous surface led to issues with moisture retention.
3. Scientists often seek imporous substances for their ability to filter and purify air and water.
4. The designer chose an imporous fabric to ensure the clothing remained lightweight and breathable.
5. In the laboratory, researchers tested various compounds for their imporous properties to enhance filtration systems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imporous>