

IMPORTLESS

Meaning: Importless refers to a trade or market condition characterized by the absence or minimal presence of imported goods, emphasizing the preference for local products.

1. The concept of importless trade has gained traction in recent years.
2. In an importless market, local products are often prioritized over foreign goods.
3. Her approach to cooking is refreshingly importless, relying solely on local ingredients.
4. The region's economy thrived due to its importless status, fostering self-sufficiency.
5. Importless practices can lead to more sustainable consumption and reduced carbon footprints.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/importless>