

IMPORTUNATOR

Meaning: Importunator: a person who persistently and annoyingly demands attention or favors.

1. The term 'importunator' refers to someone who persistently and annoyingly demands attention or favors.
2. In the crowded marketplace, he was known as an importunator, always seeking to engage potential customers with his relentless pitches.
3. Despite her initial kindness, she soon realized that the constant requests made by the importunator were more than she could handle.
4. His reputation as an importunator preceded him, leading many to avoid him at social gatherings.
5. Though often seen as a nuisance, the importunator believed his persistence would eventually lead to success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/importunator>