

IMPORTUNER

Meaning: Importuner: a person who persistently demands or requests something, often to the point of being bothersome or intrusive.

1. She felt overwhelmed by the constant need to importuner her boss for feedback on her project.
2. Despite his initial reluctance, he eventually agreed to importuner his friend about the job opportunity.
3. The children would often importuner their parents for extra snacks before dinner.
4. It became exhausting for her to importuner the committee for updates on the event planning.
5. He decided to importuner the local council for support in his community initiative.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/importuner>