

IMPOSABLE

Meaning: Imposable refers to something that can be imposed, such as fines or penalties, especially in the context of regulations or laws.

1. The new regulations include several imposable fines for non-compliance.
2. In certain circumstances, the tax authority has the right to impose imposable penalties.
3. The judge determined that the defendant had committed an imposable offense under the law.
4. He felt that the terms of the contract were imposable and unfairly restrictive.
5. As a result of the investigation, several imposable sanctions were proposed against the company.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imposable>