

IMPOSING

Meaning: Imposing: having a grand or impressive appearance that evokes admiration or respect.

1. The imposing architecture of the cathedral drew visitors from all over the world.
2. He stood at the front of the room, his imposing presence commanding everyone's attention.
3. The mountain range was imposing, its peaks shrouded in mist and mystery.
4. Her imposing stature made her a natural leader among her peers.
5. The painting had an imposing quality that filled the entire gallery with awe.
6. The imposing statue in the center of the square attracted visitors from all over the city.
7. She walked into the room with an imposing presence that commanded everyone's attention.
8. The architect designed an imposing structure that would become a landmark in the skyline.
9. His imposing stature made him an intimidating figure during the negotiations.
10. The mountains loomed in the distance, imposing their majestic beauty on the landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imposing>