

IMPOSTOR

Meaning: Impostor: a person who pretends to be someone else in order to deceive others, often for personal gain.

1. The man claimed to be a renowned artist, but many suspected he was just an impostor.
2. After years of hard work, she finally exposed the impostor who had been stealing her ideas.
3. Despite his charming demeanor, the team quickly realized he was nothing but an impostor in their midst.
4. The impostor's elaborate scheme fooled everyone until a keen-eyed detective uncovered the truth.
5. Feeling like an impostor, she struggled with self-doubt despite her many accomplishments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impostor>