

IMPOSTROUS

Meaning: Impostrous: adjective describing something that is absurd, outrageous, or preposterous in nature.

1. The proposal was so impostrous that it sparked a heated debate among the committee members.
2. His impostrous claims about having invented the internet left everyone in disbelief.
3. They dismissed her impostrous behavior as a desperate attempt to gain attention.
4. The artist's impostrous interpretation of the classic piece challenged traditional views of beauty.
5. In an impostrous twist, the villain turned out to be the hero's long-lost sibling.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impostrous>