

IMPOTENT

Meaning: Impotent: lacking power or ability to act or influence a situation.

1. The sudden loss of his job left him feeling impotent in the face of mounting bills.
2. Despite her efforts to persuade him, he remained impotent to change his mind about the trip.
3. The outdated equipment rendered the team's efforts impotent against the competition.
4. In the face of such overwhelming evidence, his arguments felt utterly impotent.
5. She realized that her fears were impotent against her determination to succeed.
6. The new policy left many workers feeling impotent in their ability to effect change.
7. After hearing the news, he felt utterly impotent to help his friend in need.
8. Despite his best efforts, the team was impotent against the strong opposition they faced.
9. The medication made him feel physically weak and emotionally impotent for several weeks.
10. In the face of such overwhelming challenges, she felt impotent to express her frustrations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impotent>