

IMPOUNDER

Meaning: To impound means to seize and take possession of property, typically vehicles, due to legal violations or infractions.

1. The city decided to impound vehicles that were parked without permits in the downtown area.
2. After numerous warnings, the authorities were forced to impound the car belonging to the repeat offender.
3. She was relieved to find out that her impounded bike could be retrieved from the local police station.
4. The impounder reported that the majority of the seized vehicles were abandoned and in disrepair.
5. In an effort to reduce traffic violations, the city implemented stricter laws that allowed for quicker impounding of offending cars.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impounder>