

IMPREGN

Meaning: To impregn (verb) means to infuse or saturate a substance with a particular quality, element, or nutrient.

1. The scientist was eager to impregn the solution with the necessary nutrients for optimal growth.
2. She found it fascinating how certain materials could be impregn with special properties to enhance their durability.
3. To ensure the fabric was water-resistant, it needed to be impregn with a special coating.
4. The ancient method involved using clay that was impregn with oils for better preservation.
5. The artist chose to impregn the canvas with vibrant colors that would bring the scene to life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impregn>