

IMPREGNABLE

Meaning: IMPREGNABLE: incapable of being overcome, defeated, or destroyed; invulnerable or unassailable.

1. The castle was built on a high hill, making it virtually impregnable to enemy attacks.
2. Her confidence in her argument was impregnable, leaving no room for doubt.
3. The fortress stood for centuries, deemed impregnable by those who attempted to breach its walls.
4. He believed his position in the company was impregnable, but the sudden restructuring changed everything.
5. The scientist's theory was considered impregnable until new evidence emerged to challenge it.
6. The castle's walls were so thick and well-fortified that they seemed impregnable to any siege.
7. Despite the fierce storm, the old lighthouse stood impregnable against the crashing waves.
8. Her confidence in her abilities made her feel impregnable in the face of criticism.
9. The team built an impregnable defense, leaving their opponents struggling to score.
10. Throughout history, many believed certain empires to be impregnable until they eventually fell.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impregnable>