

IMPREGNATING

Meaning: IMPREGNATING: The process of infusing or saturating a substance with specific materials or elements, often for enhancement or fertilization purposes.

1. The scientists focused on impregnating the material with the necessary chemicals to enhance its properties.
2. She was thrilled when she learned her doctor had successfully begun the process of impregnating the embryos.
3. The artist experimented with impregnating the canvas with vibrant colors before applying the final layers.
4. The research team discussed the implications of impregnating soil with nutrients to improve crop yields.
5. His passion for environmental conservation led him to explore methods of impregnating textiles with sustainable materials.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impregnating>