

IMPREGNATION

Meaning: Impregnation refers to the process of saturating or infusing something, such as soil with nutrients, or the fertilization of an egg leading to pregnancy.

1. The impregnations of the soil with nutrients are crucial for healthy plant growth.
2. She attributed her sudden fatigue to the early signs of her pregnancy following the recent impregnation.
3. The scientist conducted experiments to understand the process of fertilization and subsequent impregnation in various species.
4. Historically, the concept of impregnation has been surrounded by various cultural beliefs and rituals.
5. The artist's new exhibition explores themes of creation and impregnation, reflecting on life's beginnings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impregnation>