

IMPRENABLE

Meaning: Impenetrable; unable to be overcome or defeated.

1. The fortress was considered impregnable, standing tall against centuries of attacks.
2. Her confidence made her feel impregnable, as if no challenge could ever bring her down.
3. Despite the numerous attempts to breach the security, the system remained impregnable to hackers.
4. The ancient castle was designed to be impregnable, with thick walls and deep moats.
5. His arguments were so well-constructed that they rendered his position seemingly impregnable.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imprenable>