

IMPRESSIBILITY

Meaning: Impressibility refers to the quality of being easily influenced or affected by external factors or conditions.

1. The impressibility of the material was tested under various conditions to determine its durability.
2. Her impressibility made her easily swayed by the opinions of her peers, often leading her to change her mind.
3. Scientists debated the impressibility of different metals when exposed to magnetic fields.
4. The artist's impressibility allowed her to capture fleeting emotions in her paintings with remarkable depth.
5. In psychology, impressibility refers to an individual's susceptibility to suggestion or influence from others.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impressibility>