

IMPRESSIONABLENESS

Meaning: Impressionableness is the quality of being easily influenced or affected by external factors or the opinions of others.

1. Her impressionableness made her susceptible to the influence of persuasive speakers.
2. The child's impressionableness was evident as she quickly adopted the behaviors of her peers.
3. In literature, characters often struggle with their impressionableness in the face of strong personalities.
4. The psychologist noted that impressionableness can vary significantly between individuals.
5. Teachers must be aware of their students' impressionableness to foster a positive learning environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impressionableness>