

IMPRESSIONISTIC

Meaning: Impressionistic: relating to a style of art or literature that emphasizes the overall impression or emotional effect rather than detailed accuracy or representation.

1. The artist's impressionistic style captured the essence of the landscape rather than its precise details.
2. Her impressionistic approach to storytelling left readers with vivid emotions and fleeting images.
3. The gallery showcased an impressionistic collection that beautifully conveyed the play of light and color.
4. In his impressionistic painting, the bustling city scene seemed to come alive with movement and life.
5. Critics praised the film for its impressionistic narrative, which blurred the lines between reality and memory.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impressionistic>