

IMPROBABLE

Meaning: Improbable: unlikely to happen or be true; not probable.

1. The odds of winning the lottery are highly improbable for most people.
2. It seemed improbable that they would be able to complete the project on time.
3. Given the circumstances, his sudden recovery felt almost improbable.
4. The team's victory was improbable, yet they managed to pull off an incredible upset.
5. She found it improbable that anyone could forget such a significant event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/improbable>