

IMPROMPT

Meaning: IMPROMPT: Adjective describing something done or said without prior preparation or planning, often spontaneously.

1. She delivered an imprompt speech that captivated the audience.
2. The imprompt performance by the jazz band was a delightful surprise.
3. We decided to take an imprompt road trip to the coast for the weekend.
4. His imprompt decision to join the dance floor added to the fun of the party.
5. They organized an imprompt meeting to discuss the urgent issues at hand.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imprompt>