

IMPROPERATION

Meaning: Improperation refers to the act of misrepresentation or incorrect presentation of information or facts.

1. The improperation of the new policy caused widespread confusion among the employees.
2. During the meeting, his improperation of the facts led to misunderstandings about the project timeline.
3. She felt a sense of improperation when her ideas were dismissed without proper consideration.
4. The improperation of the rules resulted in several teams being disqualified from the competition.
5. His improperation of the data raised concerns about the integrity of the research findings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/improperation>