

IMPROPRIATING

Meaning: Impropropriating refers to the act of taking or using something, especially funds or resources, for one's own benefit in a manner that is improper or unauthorized.

1. The scandal arose when the politician was accused of improperly appropriating public funds.
2. She faced serious consequences for appropriating company resources for her personal use.
3. The artist was criticized for appropriating elements of another culture without permission.
4. His actions were deemed unethical, as he was found appropriating intellectual property from other creators.
5. The debate centered around the fine line between inspiration and appropriating someone else's work.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impropriating>