

IMPROPRIATION

Meaning: Impropropriation refers to the wrongful or illegal appropriation of funds or resources for personal or unauthorized use.

1. The recent impropropriation of funds within the organization has raised serious concerns among stakeholders.
2. In a controversial move, the council faced backlash for the impropropriation of public resources for private gain.
3. Impropropriation often leads to legal battles, as those affected seek justice for the misuse of their contributions.
4. The report detailed instances of impropropriation that undermined public trust in the administration.
5. To combat impropropriation, strict regulations were enforced to ensure transparency in financial dealings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impropropriation>