

IMPROPRIATOR

Meaning: IMPROPRIATOR: A person who holds or manages property, especially land, often with implications of questionable ethics or exploitation.

1. The impropiator of the land had a controversial reputation in the community.
2. His actions as an impropiator often blurred the lines between ethical practices and exploitation.
3. The impropiator faced legal challenges after being accused of misusing public resources.
4. As an impropiator, she felt a moral obligation to consider the rights of those affected by her decisions.
5. The impropiator's influence extended beyond property, affecting local politics and social dynamics.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impropiator>