

IMPROVISE

Meaning: To improvise means to create or perform something spontaneously without preparation, often in response to unexpected circumstances.

1. She had to improvise when her original plan fell through.
2. The musician was known for his ability to improvise on the spot during live performances.
3. During the presentation, he managed to improvise answers to unexpected questions from the audience.
4. They decided to improvise a new recipe with the ingredients they had on hand.
5. In the midst of the power outage, they mustered their creativity and began to improvise entertainment for the evening.
6. She had to improvise when her speech notes went missing just before the presentation.
7. The musician decided to improvise a new melody during the live performance, captivating the audience.
8. In the cooking class, each participant was encouraged to improvise with the ingredients available.
9. When the original plan fell through, they had no choice but to improvise a solution on the spot.
10. His ability to improvise in challenging situations is what makes him an excellent leader.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/improvise>