

IMPRUDENT

Meaning: Imprudent means lacking foresight or discretion; unwise or rash in decision-making or behavior.

1. His imprudent decision to invest all his savings in a risky venture left him in a precarious financial situation.
2. She was often reprimanded for her imprudent remarks during meetings, which led to misunderstandings with her colleagues.
3. Choosing to drive in such poor weather conditions was deemed imprudent by even the most seasoned drivers.
4. The board's imprudent approval of the project without thorough research caused significant setbacks later on.
5. It was imprudent of him to ignore the advice of experts when making such a crucial choice for his career.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/imprudent>