

IMPUDENCY

Meaning: Impudency refers to bold or disrespectful behavior, often characterized by a lack of shame or modesty in disregarding social norms or authority.

1. His impudency in interrupting the meeting without any regard for others was shocking.
2. She displayed a remarkable impudency when she openly challenged the authority of her manager.
3. The student's impudency in questioning the teacher's knowledge left everyone in the classroom speechless.
4. Despite the impudency of his remarks, he managed to charm the audience with his confidence.
5. Her impudency was evident when she dismissed the rules as if they didn't apply to her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impudency>