

IMPUDENTLY

Meaning: IMPUDENTLY: In a manner that is boldly disrespectful or lacking in modesty.

1. She impudently challenged the rules, believing they didn't apply to her.
2. The child spoke impudently to his teacher, shocking everyone in the classroom.
3. He impudently dismissed her concerns as trivial, provoking her anger further.
4. During the meeting, she impudently interrupted the CEO, asserting her viewpoint without hesitation.
5. His impudently confident demeanor made it difficult for others to take him seriously.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impudently>