

IMPUGNABLE

Meaning: IMPUGNABLE: capable of being challenged or questioned; not defensible.

1. The lawyer presented an impugnable case that left no room for doubt.
2. Her reputation was so solid that the allegations against her seemed nearly impugnable.
3. In the debate, he skillfully dismantled his opponent's arguments, making them appear impugnable.
4. The scientist's findings were robust and impugnable, standing up to rigorous scrutiny.
5. Even under intense questioning, his integrity remained impugnable, as he had always acted with honesty.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impugnable>