

IMPULSE

Meaning: Impulse: a sudden and strong desire or urge to act without premeditation.

1. She acted on an impulse and bought the dress she had been eyeing for weeks.
2. His sudden impulse to travel led him to book a last-minute flight to Paris.
3. The child couldn't resist the impulse to grab the candy from the table.
4. Despite her better judgment, she followed the impulse to call him after all those years.
5. The impulse to help others is often what drives community service initiatives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impulse>