

IMPUNE

Meaning: IMPUNE: To exempt from punishment or consequence; to act without fear of repercussions.

1. The corrupt officials believed they could act with impunity, safe in the knowledge that their actions would go unpunished.
2. She refused to let the bully's words impune her self-esteem, reminding herself of her worth.
3. The court's decision sent a clear message that no one could impune the law without facing consequences.
4. Despite his attempts to impune her character, her friends rallied around her to defend her reputation.
5. The journalist was determined to uncover the truth, refusing to let anyone impune the integrity of her investigation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/impune>